AN Indian Belief.

There is a belief prevalent in India that if a man be sleeping, no matter where, and a Sheesh Nag come and sit beside him, with a hood spread over the sleeper's face, the latter is sure to be a son of fortune. Popular tradition assigns the same reason to the rise of Maida Ali of Mysore from a common soldier.

A Wee Drop.

Sandy—And will ye tak' a drap o' whisky afore ye gang home, Tammas? Tammas—Ah, weel, just a wee drapole.

Sandy—Then say when, laddie.

Tammas—Nay, mon; the glass will say when.—London King.

A Thoroughbred.

She—is it true that when you proposed to me you didn't know whether I was worth a penny?

He—Absolutely. But I always was willing to take chances.—Detroit Free Press.

A Wise Prophet.

"On the whole," said the aged weather prophet, "I have found that the safest course is to predict bad weather."

"Why?" asked the neophyte.

"Because people are much more ready to forgive you if the prediction does not come true."

Her Size.

Young Man—I want an engagement ring.

Jeweler—Yes, sir; about what size?

"I don't know exactly, but she can twist me round her finger, if that is any guide."

Painfully Accounted For.

Bizzler—Where does that man Filmer get all his money?

Buzzer—Well, I loaned him five dollars two years ago.—Ohio State Journal.

It is claimed that dentistry prolongs life. As has been said of matrimony, it certainly makes it seem longer.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

No man can build character by trying to ratify that of others.—Nashville Banner.

His Mistake.

"What curious mistakes men make sometimes! I've just been reading, for instance, that Columbus imagined that he had discovered the Indies."

"Ah, I made a worse mistake than that! When I married my wife, I thought I'd discovered paradise!"

Candid.

Miss Alma—When did you become reacquainted with your wife, doctor?

Doctor—After the wedding.—Heiter Welt.

No Superstition.

"Would you start on a journey on Friday?"

"No, indeed."

"Why are people so superstitious?"

"But this has nothing to do with superstition. I get paid on Saturday."

A small iron pot holding about a quart, which is still preserved, was cast at the Lynn foundry in 1845. It was the first iron article made from native ore in America.

Digests what you Eat

Dyspepsia Cure

Indigestion affects so many organs besides the stomach that the nature of the disease is sometimes mistaken. Headaches, giddiness, and so-called heart trouble are usually caused by indigestion alone. In such cases it is the stomach trouble which must be cured. Kodol Dyspepsia cures health by digesting your food while the stomach rests.

Digesting doesn't mean rest but starvation. You should relieve the stomach without weakening the system by denying yourself proper food. With a sound stomach your other complaints will soon disappear. "After seven years' suffering from indigestion" writes Mrs. Annie Alcorn of Meriden, Pa. "I was cured by three bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure."
